“Yoga for Peace”

4th International Day of Yoga is observed by college NSS unit on June 21, 2018. On this day, which is dedicated to inner and outer well-being of human body, people across the world practice yoga in groups. The International Day of Yoga aims to raise awareness worldwide of the many benefits of practicing yoga, a physical, mental and spiritual practice. The word yoga originates from Yuja, a Sanskrit word which means, "to join or to unite", symbolizing the union of body and consciousness.

Student volunteers from various departments along with faculty coordinators Prof. Prafull M. Tarwatkar and Prof. Ashlesha Nagpure performed several Asanas. Surya Namaskar and other asanas were demonstrated by student coordinator Mr. Sagar Dewale, 5th Semester Computer Engineering, and other performed then after.

Faculty coordinators Prof. Prafull M. Tarwatkar and Prof. Ashlesha Nagpure along with NSS Student volunteers actively involved themselves in celebrating this day.

“Independence Day Celebration”

Remembering the unconditional and numerous sacrifices made by our freedom fighters in the struggle for independence; students, staff and Management of the College partook in celebrating the 72nd Independence Day with great fervor. Col. Pankaj Gupta, graced the occasion as Chief Guest. The ceremony started with hoisting of the national flag and singing the national anthem, evoking a strong sense of togetherness, gratitude to freedom fighters of the past and present-day soldiers who sacrifice everything to protect Mother India.

The college musical band presented patriotic melodies, casting a spell upon the entire audience. The Chief Guest in his address emphasized that the youth need to rekindle within themselves a burning desire to serve the country and be thankful to the soldiers for all the sacrifices they make for the nation.

Staff appreciation awards, dance performances followed by a flash mob, were surprise events of the day. The day's program concluded with tree plantation, followed by the Independence Day football match.

Digvijay Divas Anniversary

September 11, 1893, was a day on which Swami Vivekananda gave the world-famous speech at Chicago in the Parliament of World Religions. This day is celebrated as Digvijay Divas because he conquered the world with his spirituality in practice and that too at a time when India was not yet independent.

It was for the very first time that the message of 'Universal Brotherhood' and its proper understanding was given to the western world. Observing this day in our college were the NSS Unit of the Electrical Engineering Dept., along with students and faculty members. The full speech as given by Swami Vivekananda on that great day too was read out. Prof. Prafull Tarwatkar, NSS Program Officer coordinated this activity.

“स्वच्छता से सुरक्षा”

"Better the Balance, Better the World" #BalanceforBetter

International Women's Day (March 8) is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity.

The intention of celebrating this day is to revive within people the feeling of being thankful and acknowledging the contribution women have made all over the world, inspiring many and planting a seed of hope in all those trying to make a mark in this world in spite of facing various challenges.

This time the day was celebrated by honoring Lady Housekeeping Staff of college by distributing Health & Sanitation Kit to them. The aim of this is to inculcate Hygiene and Safety. Dr. (Mrs.) J. P. Rothe, Professor, EED did the honor.

The event was coordinated by Prof. P. M. Tarwatkar (NSS Program Officer) & Dr. (Mrs.) Ashlesha Nagpur.

So, let's applaud women who make a remarkable difference at home and in society!
